Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

In response to the Notice to File Missing Parts, dated January 30, 2003 and after careful review of the subject patent application, Applicants respectfully maintain that the subject application does not contain any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences. As such, Applicants submit that the application is in condition of adherence to the rules of rules 37 C.F.R. §1.821-1.825 and that a sequence listing need not be submitted.

If, however, the Office has identified any sequences in the specification that require listing, Applicants would appreciate that the Office communicate them to the Applicants.

Should any unresolved issues remain, the Examiner is encouraged to contact the undersigned at the telephone number provided below.

Respectfully submitted,
